

Triumph Over Tempting “Carb Crack” Former Sugar-Addicted Journalist Helps Audiences Rebound After Relapse™

CONNIE BENNETT, CHHC

A pioneer in the sugar-education movement, Connie is author of the bestselling books, Sugar Shock (Berkley Books, 2006) and Beyond Sugar Shock (Hay House, 2012).

Connie was once a sugar-and-carbs-addicted journalist, who was enslaved like the audiences she now serves. But after reluctantly quitting sweets and processed carbohydrates on doctor’s orders, she became “reborn” and ate super-cleanly for 14 years.

But in 2012, after a grueling year helplessly watching her difficult, dying mother lose the battle to cancer, Connie got Crazy Cravings™ for carbage (carb garbage), did mindless Heartbreak Bingeing™, and gained 21 pounds.

But her “huge failure” lit a journalistic fire under her. Fast forward five years. Connie now reveals her findings in her next book, I Blew My Diet! Now What? The Super-Simple Plan to Rebound After Relapse, Kick Your Carb Addiction, and Lose Weight for Good.

Connie is a frequent media guest, motivating speaker, certified health coach, life coach, popular blogger, and host of the I Blew My Diet! and Gab with the Gurus Podcasts. Available for last-minute interviews.
